

Labour Trafficking: Identification and referral of victims - challenges and policy options

On the occasion of the 5th EU Anti-Trafficking Day 2011

An event of Accem, the Churches' Commission for Migrants in Europe in cooperation with MEP Nadja Hirsch, the ALDE group in the European Parliament and partners of the MIRROR project

18th October 2011, 15.00 - 17.00 h
Brussels, European Parliament, ASP 5 G 1

- 15.00 Words of welcome MEP Nadja Hirsch
- 15.20 Identification and referral of victims of labour trafficking: current challenges - observations from the field.
Maria Teresa De Gasperis, Accem, Spain
Isabella Orfano, expert Italy (tbc)
- 15.45 Policy options for identification and Referral of victims of labour trafficking.
Torsten Moritz, CCME
- Discussion
- 16.45 Concluding remarks MEP Nadja Hirsch

Practicalities: persons without a valid access badge for the EP should send their name, date of birth and address to CCME by 10th October, 12.00 h the latest at Torsten.moritz@ccme.be

The event is presenting results of the project MIRROR "Developing agreed methodology of identification and referral for trafficking for labour exploitation: guaranteeing the victims the access to protection", which is coordinated by Accem (Spain) and co-financed by the ISEC programme of the European Commission (DG HOME)

